

CRITERION 6

Ramanath Payyade College of Hospitality Management Studies (RPH) is governed by Bunts Sangha's Mumbai Trust which was established in 1987. The college was established with a vision 'To Inculcate Enthusiasm to Serve'.

The Mission for this vision of Bunts Sangha's is establishment of Schools, Junior Colleges and Senior Colleges by effective Governance.

The establishment of professional colleges and to cater to advance programs in HEI by Bunts Sangha's shows its effective leadership.

An elective governance procedure every three years, following institutional constitution and guidelines, focus on socio-cultural educational activities shows decentralized and participative governance and management of Bunts Sangha's HEI.

The strategic and perspective plan of RPH is to enhance quality as well as quantity in prevailing educational standards.

College administration is supported by 10-15 committees, headed by Teachers and co-administered by students showcasing a student centric approach.

RPH has its own Administration Policies, Administrative setup, Appointment rules, Service rules, Procedures, etc., displayed on college website.

College administers e-governance for e-admission, e-administration – finance, accounting, examination, assessment, continuation of affiliation and fee payments enabling a paperless office.

IQAC has organized Faculty Development Programs in the college and 100% staff has attended these programs.

RPH has systematic Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non-teaching staff, carried out through an offline Appraisal Form.

Transparent, efficient and disciplined financial management is operated by the college. It undergoes internal audit and an audit by a CA.
